AUTUMNAL SPLENDOR AT GINGER VALLEY

Ginger Valley Garden Center • 15065 State Rd 23 Granger, IN 46530

Fall is the Time to Plant!

Warm, moist soil and cool air help new trees and shrubs take root. Weather conditions stimulate top growth before the spring rains and summer heat arrive.

Plant in the fall and watch your landscape thrive! The splendor and magic of Mother Nature will add to all of your hard work—you can then sit back and enjoy autumnal bliss!
